SOURCE [REDACTED] This report contains unevaluated intelligence information received through an untested source. The credibility of the information and reliability of the source and his informants cannot be determined.

1. Tahia Carioca, an Egyptian dancer, who is also a woman agent of the Egyptian secret service, went to Bucharest during the World Youth Congress there.
2. Perhaps as a result of this, five Egyptian participants in the Congress were arrested a few days after their their return. Two of these were women, who were seized as they debarked from the Rumanian passenger ship, Transylvania, in the harbor of Alexandria. The others were:

Mohammed Ouda, lawyer and journalist.
A woman teacher in the Victoria College, Cario.
A leading Egyptian merchant.

3. Mohamed Ouda is supposed to have had important documents on his person. Communist leaflets were found in his baggage.
